Seen, Heard and Done Among Those Who Go, Come and Tarry—Women and Society, Here and Elsewhere.

BY MISS E. NELLIE BECK.
Telephone 669.

VOLK-ROBINSON.

A quiet and pretty wedding was that of Mr. August Volk and Miss Margie Robinson, which took place at the bride's home on West Gregory Monday night.

Rev. George W. Carpenter officiated with the ring ceremony, in the presence of a very few friends. The pretty home was decorated with flowers and potted plants and the lights were softened by harmonizing shades.

Mr. and Mrs. Volk left on the late train for Montgomery, Ala., where they will visit his people during a part of their honeymoon.

AN INTERESTING SERVICE AT PALAFOX CHURCH TO-NIGHT.

The service in Palafox street M. E. Church to-night will be in charge of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

All the members of the society are requested to bring their "mite" boxes as the missionary year will close with the first of March, and the society desires to make its final payment on the salary of Miss Smith, the missionary who is supported by the Alabama Conference Society.

The pastor, Rev. B. C. Glenn and Mrs. J. H. Thompson of Nashville, Tenn., will address the congregation, and a rare treat in this line is promised those who attend.

All who have been so fortunate as to hear Mr. Glenn since his coming to Pensacola already know his power of touching the hearts of his hearers on any theme he chooses for a discourse, hence it is assured that the subject of "Missions," which is now engaging the greatest thought of all the churches to-day, will be interestingly touched upon at this service.

Mrs. Thompson has been long and actively connected with the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions of the M. E. Church, South, and is thoroughly informed on every department of its work. But to-night she will speak almost entirely on "The duty and privilege of the home church in obeying the call to go or send."

Mrs. Thompson is a ready speaker so full of enthusiasm and deep spiritual fervor that she is able to strike her message home to the hearts of the people in a way most impressive and lasting.

In addition to this program there will be some musical numbers which will add to the beauty and spiritual life of the service.

Mrs. F. E. Brawner and Mr. J. A. Hicks, who have of late delighted so many audiences with their voices consecrated to God in song, will sing "Jesus, lift me to Thy bosom," and Mr. and Mrs. Richard McAllister, whom to hear is to remember, will sing "Jesus, Thou joy of loving hearts."

SURPRISED MR. CLICK.

Mrs. F. O. Click, formerly Miss Nerl, gave her husband a beautiful surprise Monday night in honor of his birthday, by inviting a few friends to supper.

The table glistened with cut glass and silver bridal presents and the decorations were pink carnations and ferns.

The delicious ice cream served was the birthday gift of the hostess's father, Mr. Nerl.

Mr. and Mrs. Click's guests at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Horsler, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Miss Marks, Mr. and Mrs. Bayless, Mr. and Mrs. Nerl.

FORGET-ME-NOT CLUB.

The last meeting of the Euchre Club was held with Miss Willa, who was assisted in doing the honors by Miss Wrighton of Pensacola. In the twenty games of euchre played, Mrs. Joseph Goddard won the first prize, a hair combing jacket; Mrs. C. D. Smith the second, a half dozen embroidered handkerchiefs, and Miss Cora Wood the consolation, a pink and white handkerchief bag. Pink and white was the pretty color tone used in the decorations, and refreshments were served after the games. Miss Wrighton, the especial guest, was presented a beautiful maiden hair fern.—Mobile Item.

Miss Margaret Wrighton of Pensacola, is in the city, the guest of Miss R. S. Willa, on Charleston street.—Mobile Item.

EUESDAY EUCHE.

The Tuesday Euchre was pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Max Klein, the guests being Mrs. Barnett of New York, Miss Bloom and Miss Rosenau of Louisville, Ky., and Miss Ray Gold-stucker of this city.

Mrs. Lizzie Rosenau won the first prize, a fine growing palm and Miss Rosenau substituting for an absent member won the second, a silver almond spoon.

Miss Pearl Bloom won the guest prize, a pretty stick pin.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Ike Hirschman at Hotel Manhattan.

FOR MISS CHILDRESON.

There was an enjoyable birthday party given at the navy yard Monday night by Mrs. Merrill and Mrs. Foreman in honor of Miss Cecil Childerson.

It was a "tackey" party and all the guests were in striking costume, the honoree as the country bride and Mr. Miller carrying off the prizes. Ginger cake and lemonade were served during the early part of the evening. One of the unique decorations were candlebra made of Irish potatoes. After the Virginia reel a delightful supper was served.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pou, Mrs. Rudolf Ferguson, Miss Watkins, Miss Sadie Stockard, Miss Cornelia and Miss Florence Higgins, Miss Paul Murphy, Miss Cecil Childerson, Mr. Cary, Mr. E. R. Hanna, Mr. A. F. Miller, Mr. G. Nagel, Mr. Jim Martin, Mr. Frank Speer, Mr. F. G. Roff, Mr. Holzgrete.

MRS. LAMAR'S FAIR GUESTS LEAVE FOR NEW ORLEANS.

The two charming young ladies who have spent two delightful weeks as guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lamar, Miss Cora and Miss Isabel Lewis of Valdosta, Ga., leave to-day to visit friends in New Orleans before returning home.

Few visitors have been so continuously showered with social attentions as Mrs. Lamar's friends have shown her guests, and few have been so universally popular. The young ladies have spent the winter at a series of houseparties and, as it is their first season in society they have naturally enjoyed their round of visits, none of which could have been more delightful than this to Mrs. Lamar. The strenuous life they led in Pensacola apparently had no wearying effects, though breakfasts, luncheons, receptions, card parties, dinners and dances followed each other continuously, beginning the day they arrived and ceasing only with their departure, without a day of rest during the week.

Their early return would be welcomed by their many friends and admirers.

FOR THE MISSES LEWIS.

Judge and Mrs. John C. Avery entertained with a most delightful informal dance at the Country Club Monday night for the Misses Lewis guests of Mrs. C. W. Lamar.

Refreshing oyster patties, cheese sandwiches, hot coffee and margarine were served and Barrio's orchestra furnished excellent music throughout the evening.

The merry party returned to the city on a special car at half-past eleven.

Mrs. Scarritt Moreno will entertain Thursday afternoon for Mrs. J. Campbell Avery Jr., and Mrs. James C. Watson.

Mrs. E. C. Maxwell's dance for her guests, Miss Roney and Miss Lewis is the event for to-night.

Mrs. Barnett and family of New York, are guests at Mrs. P. Stone's on North Palafox.

Mrs. Lewis, as a committee from Rathbone Sisters, met with the Tourist Club at their recent meeting and extended the hospitality of the lodge to all visitors who are members of the order.

Mrs. D. R. Stewart, esteemed by all who know her, has been called to New Orleans by the illness of her mother and her aunt, and leaves to-morrow night. Mrs. Stewart's friends will be glad to learn that she expects to return in about two months.

Mrs. L. Hilton Green gave a charming luncheon for the Misses Lewis Monday.

Mrs. T. F. McGourin and her attractive guest Miss Stewart, Miss Perry (of Barrancas) and Mrs. (Dr.) Bruce were the guests of Miss Myers and her brother Lieutenant Myers, at a delightful chafing dish luncheon Monday afternoon at Ft. McRea.

Society divided last night between the display of home talent, at the opera house, the dance at Ft. Barrancas, except that portion that was exhausted by the recent strenuousness. They stayed quietly at home for an interval of rest before resuming the whirl.

Mrs. Alfred Moog, Miss Shulman, and their sister Mrs. Wiseman of Wilkesbarre, Pa., have the sincere sympathy of their many friends in their great sorrow at the loss of their mother.

A ROMANCE OF THE REVOLUTION.

"A Romance of the Revolution," a play in three acts, by John Francis Conoley, was produced at the opera house last night by home talent for the benefit of Christ church choir.

While the audience was not large, every one present enjoyed the production, and it is possible that talented amateurs will be asked to repeat the performance in the near future.

The plot of the play is laid in New York in the year of 1778, and calls for the picturesque Colonial costumes of those days. The leading parts were taken by Miss Beatrice White, and Mr. Conoley, both of whom played their parts to perfection.

The entire cast was well selected and the whole play was produced without a hitch. The cast was as follows:

Capt. Harry Peyton, of Lee's Light Horse.....Mr. Conoley. Major Jack Colden, of His Majesty's Grenadiers.....Mr. J. R. Reese. Mr. Valentine, a tobacco merchant.....Mr. P. Peacock. Williamson, a butcher.....Mr. P. Maddox. Cuff, a servant.....Mr. Frank Wells. Molly, a maid.....Miss Louise Palmer. Miss Sally Williams, Elizabeth's aunt.....Miss Adele Chaffee. Miss Elizabeth Phillips, loyal to the King.....Miss Beatrice White.

In obedience to the commands of His Royal Highness, Priscus Rex, I, T. E. Welles, Mayor of the good City of Pensacola, do proclaim that on the 6th and 7th days of March, next, being the days of the Royal Revels and of the sojourn of his Highness in our midst, all good subjects of our Carnival King shall be permitted to throw the substance commonly known as "coarse confetti," and all persons whatsoever are hereby enjoined under penalty of the law from the use of such devices as "rubber balls," "sticks or canes" and "dusters."

All members of the Grand Council and all officials of the City are hereby commanded to appear at the City Hall before and near high noon on Monday, the 6th day of March, to attend me and assist in welcoming the King upon his arrival at the Palafox wharf and participate in the grand parade to be given in his honor immediately after his arrival.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the City this 25th day of February, A. D. 1905.

T. E. WELLES, Mayor. Attest: C. L. SHINE, City Clerk.

Second Reader—Miss Vadee Adams. Treasurer—Miss Ione Bell. Clerk—Miss Katherine McC. Smith.

THE REAL CAUSE.

The Ancient Scalp Fever Theory Exploded.

At one time dandruff was attributed to the result of a feverish condition of the scalp, which threw off the dried cuticle in scales.

Professor Unna, Hamburg, Germany, noted authority on skin diseases, explodes this theory and says that dandruff is a germ disease.

This germ is really responsible for the dandruff and for so many bald heads. It can be cured if it is gone about in the right way. The right way, of course, and the only way, is to kill the germ.

Newbro's Herpicide does this, and permits the hair to grow luxuriantly, just as nature intended it should.

Sold by leading druggists. For sale by W. A. D'Alemberte, druggist and apothecary, 121 S. Palafox. Send 10 cents in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Mich.
